

Overseer Nominees, Three-Year Term

---

Brett Collier, the Director of Strength and Conditioning at First Presbyterian Day School, accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at the age of 14. He has been a member of Ingleside since 2019. He and his wife, Katie, have two children, Maddie and Mollie. Brett is on the team of teachers for the 22:32 class.

Alex Correa is married to Shay, and they have three children, Evan, Andrew, and Hollis. He confessed faith in Christ at the age of 27 and has been a member of Ingleside since 2001. Alex has served in children's and middle school ministries, as an adult Bible study leader, a small group leader, an Overseer, and he has participated in mission trips to New Orleans, Peru, and Haiti. He currently serves in high school ministry and with Men's Hike ministry. Alex is a physician with The ENT Center of Central Georgia.

Ben Hinson became a member of Ingleside in 1982 and repented and believed in Jesus when he was 6. He and his wife, Vicki, have two adult children, Brittany (Cooper) and Shae (Katie) and five grandchildren. Ben has served with preschoolers, as a Bible study leader for high school students, as a choir member, as a Deacon and an Overseer, and on national and international mission trips. He and Vicki currently lead a small group for nearly and newly married couples. Ben was the founder and president of Mid Georgia Ambulance Service, now retired.

Johnny Mitchell accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at the age of 8 and has been a member of Ingleside since 1970. He and his wife, Lisa, have three adult children, John (Grace), James (Gina), and Mary Elaine. Johnny has served as a Bible study leader for newly married couples, singles, middle and high school students, and in Upward ministries. He and Lisa are beginning a new role leading a group for young married couples. Johnny is an attorney.