“We no longer rightly perceive the way the world works – we no longer recognize the order - so we can't navigate through daily life. God created the world with an order to work in a certain way, and we must live according to that to be truly wise; but in our brokenness we don't see it. Proverbs is all about restoring that harmony through Jesus Christ. Proverbs is all about becoming wise in everyday life through a relationship with Jesus - through the gospel. It's about the life of the kingdom that God always meant for human kind to live.” – Danny Akin
